Dear church family,

This is an update from the pastoral search committee (myself, Hans, Jessica Novikoff, Rebecca Dodson, Ed Sunder, Rob Tinholt, and Jack Beckman).

We give thanks to the Lord that we've finished the first phase of the search, completing our church profile—a 16 page document that introduces our church, our history, and what we're about. You can read the church profile here (which includes the pastor profile on pp.13-14).

Our consultant, Charles McGowan, is already distributing this information to Reformed seminaries, presbyteries, and other networks. This is now the pastor nomination phase. We already have six candidates but many more names will be coming in over the next 2–3 weeks. Things are going to be intense for the committee. We'll be looking over applications, listening to sermons, and evaluating candidates to discern whom God has chosen to be our next pastor.

Most importantly, we invite the congregation to join our work as we solicit names of potential candidates for the senior pastor position. If you know anyone in the PCA who would be a good fit, would you please submit the name via this short Google form?

The committee used to meet on Sunday evenings, but over the summer we have been meeting every Wednesday evening. Please continue to keep us and our work in your prayers.

Blessings,

Lance for the Committee
